

Art Baby

- a performance artist makes a new work of art (and also wonders why Mary Kelly is so alone; is there only room for one (star*)).

My father was in the military, my mother is a psycho analyst. I am a performance artist, and your art baby. (if you want to talk to me send a woman). My grandfather was a man and my grandmother was woman. (I am a woman).

The (real) art baby has yet not been seen. I am sometimes seen. Will my art baby play in the Art Review football cup? I'm your art baby and I was not invited to play (I am a woman).

One day the art baby will have a baby of its own that will maybe be in the military. My grandmother pricked the condom with a needle.

Music (painted as a woman by Salvator Rosa) and poetry (painted as a woman by Salvator Rosa) inspire philosophy (painted as a man by Salvator Rosa) with genius. Their beauty inspire the great genius with the pain of accessing sublime nature. I am an art baby and my own muse, pouring inspiration into a new performance work, the art baby.

‘there are not enough pregnant people in the arts’

Malin Ståhl

(with support from Anita Wernström)

